NFPA 101 LIFE SAFETY - 2012 CODE AMENDMENTS

Sec. 10-25. Adoption of the National Fire Protection Association 101 Life Safety Code- 2012 Edition; Applicability, Administration, and Enforcement.

The National Fire Protection Association 101 Life Safety Code – 2012 Edition, as published by National Fire Protection Association, (hereinafter referred to as the “NFPA 2012”), subject to the additions, insertions, deletions, and modifications prescribed in Section 10-26 of this Article. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter to the contrary, the Fire Chief of the Effingham Fire Department, the Assistant Fire Chief, and his or her designees, are hereby authorized and directed to enforce the provisions of said NFPA 2012 for all Health Care Facilities located within the corporate limits of the City of Effingham. The City of Effingham Police Department, City Engineer, City Building Official and City Attorney are hereby authorized and directed to cooperate with the Effingham Fire Department in the implementation and enforcement of the NFPA 2012 for all Health Care Facilities located within the corporate limits of the City of Effingham. For purposes of this Section 10-25, “Health Care Facilities” shall mean buildings, portions of buildings, or mobile enclosures in which human medical, nursing, or surgical care is provided.

The provisions in Chapter 1 of the IFC 2015, as adopted by the City of Effingham within Section 10-21 of this Article, and as amended by Section 10-22 of this Article, shall be the administration and enforcement provisions to be applied to the NFPA 2012.

Sec. 10-26. Amendments to the National Fire Protection Association 101 Life Safety Code- 2012 Edition.

The following sections and appendices of the NFPA 2012 are hereby added, inserted, deleted, and/or modified as follows:

The word “Add” preceding a provision of this Section means that such provision is thereby added to and made part of the NFPA 2012 as though fully set forth at the referenced section.

The word “Amend” preceding a provision of this Section means that such provision amends the reference section of the NFPA 2012 to read as provided and that such provision is added to and made a part of this code as though fully set forth at the referenced number.

The word “Delete” preceding a provision of this Section means that such provision deletes the referenced section from the NFPA 2012.

The word “Passim” preceding a provision of this Section means that such provision amends any reference of such phrase found at various places throughout the NFPA 2012.
