LIEUTENANT PROMOTION

Effingham Chief of Police Jeffrey Fuesting announced today the promotion of Jason Caraway from the rank of Sergeant to the rank of Lieutenant. Lieutenant Caraway is a 10-year police veteran. He has previously served as a Patrol Officer, Community Policing Officer, and Patrol Squad Supervisor. Lieutenant Caraway is a graduate of Eastern Illinois University with a Bachelor Degree in Applied Science.

Lieutenant Caraway will assume the responsibility as one of two Bureau Commanders in the Bureau of Patrol. Chief Fuesting stated, "Lieutenant Caraway has made meaningful contributions to the Department.

I'm proud of his accomplishments while serving in the Community Policing Office and look forward to seeing his Patrol Squads grow under his leadership."

Lieutenant Caraway will begin his new duties on January 27th.
